June Weddings—Davis G. Lovejoy Dead

A pretty wedding was solemnized at 2 p. m., June 19, when their daughter, Esther Estelle Lapham, was married to Gilbert Everett Brown. The impressive double ring service was performed in the presence of the immediate families. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lapham, and the bridesmaids were Misses Lapham and Brown. The bride was dressed in pale pink and carried an arm bouquet of pink and white carnations, while the groom wore a cream flowered suit. The bride's father, a member of the church, gave her away, while the bride's mother, who was the best man was white.

The bride and groom were young first cousins and the ceremony was performed by Rev. H. E. Brock. The wedding was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

"You know, I couldn't have possibly 'made' it, if it hadn't been for my ELECTRIC RANGE..."

And as Mrs. L— and Mrs. M— hurry along to that 1:30 luncheon and bridge, afternoon matinee, or shopping trip, Mrs. L— tells her friend how busy the morning has been... unable to complete her morning's cooking but how she has left the completion of this job to her ELECTRIC Range.

The automatic features carefully guard the temperature maintaining the proper degree and shutting it off when the food is thoroughly cooked. Thus it is unnecessary for her to be present.

Why not let ELECTRIC Cookery solve your problems also? Among the many attractive features of cooking this way are the following:

1. It's completely automatic.
2. It insures cooking success.
3. It gives more leisure.
4. It improves the flavor of foods.
5. It's always comfortable.
6. It's most convenient.
7. It's very healthful.
8. It's clean as sunshine.
9. It's safe in every way.
10. It's modern.

OXFORD—FORE STREET

And now your correspondent is told she does not spell names correctly. "That's my weakness now," as the song runs. All the excuse I have to offer is with the clerk told the proprietor of the store when complaint came, that "Kophy was no way to spell coffee". The clerk replied, "Well, if 'Kophy' doesn't spell coffee, what does it spell?"

Flora Cummings was in Lewiston, Tuesday, on business, also called on her aunts, Miss Anna K. Cummings and Mrs. Ella Gould of that place.
